A GROWING NEWSPAPER IN A GROWING COMMUNITY

Volume 53, Number 32. CAMPBELL, SANTA CLARA COUNTY, CALIFORNIA Thursday, April 29, 1948

Our Town

By Peggy Blanchard

Mrs. Porter of Del Patio street we hear, is going to Fairbanks, Alaska, for a visit with her son this early summer. She's to leave Campbell about June 12, according to present plans, and travels by boat to Seward, from Seattle and thence to Fairbanks by the famed Alaska railroad.

Methodists of the local church credit Mrs. E. R. Kennedy for the big, successful anniversary day April 18. She was general chairman and general inspiration for the whole affair, but so modest, we had to add her name to the newspaper account of the doings.

Latest bulletin on C. D. Cutting is that he arrived in New York April 24 aboard the Washington.

He's the adventurous Campbell youth who took off last October for to see the world—or half of it anyway. Since then, he's been to Naples and Northern Italy, Switzerland (where he saw the Olympic winter sports finals) to France, England, Belgium, Holland and Denmark.

C. D. provided his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cutting, with highlights of his trip by letter.—They look for him home about June 1, to fill in the details of what he saw, heard and felt as he traveled about.

He worked for his passage as he went—in the shipyards, on a cattle boat, wherever willing hands were needed.

From repairing other peoples' antiques to owning some—to setting up an antique shop in their own front parlor was a natural transition for the young Montgomerys, down Campbell avenue. Their chief interest is in American furniture, as distinguished from glassware, china and bric-a-brac.

Sprinkling rain in the forepart of the week and a steady downpour Wednesday gave last year's rainfall total its first real challenge of the season as the gage in Campbell climbed upward from 8.04 inches.

After the record drought of January and February that dimmed electric lights, crop prospects and the industrial outlook for the state, nature reversed herself and has poured on moisture in double-quick succession during the past seven weeks.

The score: Last year's total to date—9.78. This year, April 28—8.92. Only an inch and a fraction under the average total—and more rain on the way.

Indignation sessions, touched off this week by Lana Turner's wedding dress: Women turned pale with envy, strong men turned pale to think that "women are such gold-diggers." Folks in the clothing industry are presumably happy about the whole affair.

Parents Attend Classes During Schools Week

Parents were guests of Campbell schools—reputed to be some of the finest in the State—this week at special programs and exhibits arranged to acquaint them with education in 1948.

First-hand information on how their children spend the day will be afforded parents of Campbell Union High School at an open house there from 7:30 to 10 p. m. today.

Equipped with class schedules for the entire school day, parents will visit each class room in turn as part of Public Schools Week celebration.

Class periods will be condensed to 10 minutes and include an assembly program and lunch time.

A skit written by Martha Powers, junior student, will illustrate the theme of "Drivers' Education." George Kemp, driver instructor, and Dudley Herschback, sophomore, will also speak during assembly.

After parents have attended classes, they will be served refreshments by the PTA in the Bucs' Cove.

Grammar School Program

Campbell Grammar School held open house for parents Tuesday during the regular class periods.

Dedication of the new unit building at Moreland School and of the new Moorpark and San Tomas Schools give special emphasis to Public Schools week.

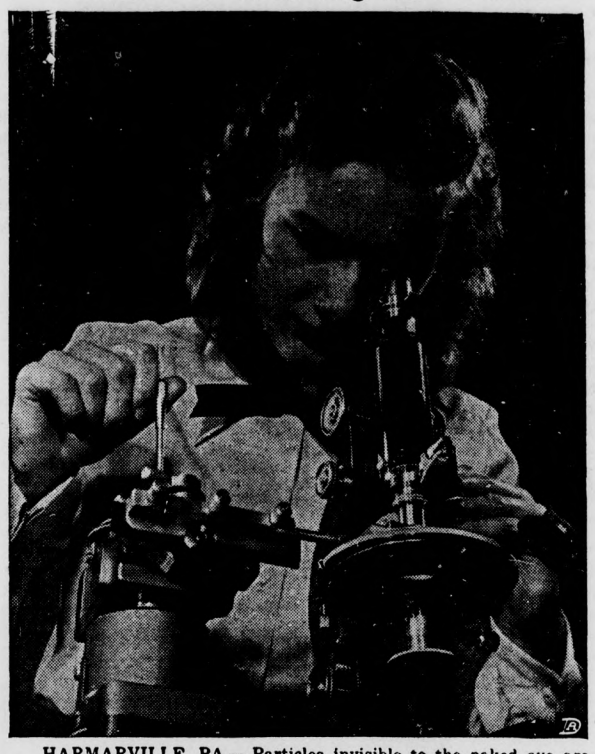
Dedication ritual at the Moreland building was held Wednesday evening, with students, faculty and distinguished guests taking part.

Father J. Ryan, resident priest at St. Martin's in Burbank, gave the invocation.

Reverend Gordon L. King, minister of the Congregational Church in Saratoga, presented a memorial address in honor of Mrs. Isabel Godin Anderson who served as a trustee at Moreland for more than 20 years.

Members of the PTA served refreshments. Among the pupils assisting with arrangements, under the direction of Mrs. Gussie Baker, principal, are: Gwen Robertson, Donne Montmorency, Burton Wiesendanger, Jack Lipford, Bernard Spiegel, Leslie Hazleton, Elaine Smith, Ruth Eyer, Beatrice La Barbera, Betty Fantozzi, Teresa Chagnolla, Dorothy Hirose, Linda Tsuruda and Catherine Akiyama.

Machine for Handling the Invisible



HARMARVILLE, PA.— Particles invisible to the naked eye are handled by this wizard-like machine of modern science, called the micro-manipulator. The hand lever operates a hydromatic drive directing probes, rakes and shovels so tiny they work within a drop of water as would ordinary instruments in a beaker or test tube. A humidified cell prevents evaporation of the minute sample beneath the microscope lens. Photo was taken at Gulf Oil's micro-laboratory where research into the infinitely small is speeding progress toward meeting the world's demands for oil.

Campbell Women To Take Part in Home Demonstration Day May 6

Home Demonstration Day of the Agricultural Extension Service will be held Thursday, May 6, at the Los Gatos Union High School. The annual program will start at 10 a.m. and will last until 3 p.m.

In the morning there will be a series of demonstrations on the following topics: Kitchen cupboards, machine hemming and factory methods, dress forms, dry cleaning, barbecue meals, holiday desserts, freezing pre-cooked foods and hooked rugs. Mrs. Anna Johnson of 33 South Milton Ave., Campbell, will assist with the demonstration of the hooked rugs.

Lunch will be from 10 until 1:30 on the front lawn of the high school. A public address system will be set up and there will be music and entertainment. Lunch will be picnic style—either box lunch or picnic pot-luck. Each group is asked to furnish its own beverages. Card tables and folding chairs, blankets and pillows may also be brought for additional comfort.

In the afternoon the program will continue in the high school auditorium to hear Dr. Jean Warren, head home economics department, University of California at Davis, speak on "How Wisely Do You Spend Your Time and Money?" She has new pointers for all of us on streamlining our homemaking. One feature this year will be adequate provision for child care for the low rate of 25 cents per child. Each mother who brings a child is asked to bring a lunch for the child.

All women and women's organizations of the community are very cordially invited to attend.

For any further information regarding this Home Demonstration Day you may phone Mrs. Edythe Flagg, Campbell 3445.

State Emergency Power Director Suspends Electric Controls May 1

Existing controls on the use of electric power in Northern and Central California will be suspended as of May 1 next, Robert P. O'Brien, Emergency Power Director, announced today.

In an Emergency Power Director's Order No. 4, O'Brien reported that removal of present controls which remain on new business connections results from three factors:

1. Improvement in electric power resources resulting from March and April storms.

2. Completion of arrangements to obtain increased deliveries of power from Southern California.

3. A study of the system load changes which have taken place since the suspension of April 12, which removed many curtailment regulations.

R. E. Mittelstaedt, president of the California Public Utilities Commission, announced that the Commission met in special session as soon as O'Brien's analysis of the situation was received and gave a quick stamp of approval to suspension of controls.

At the same time, Mittelstaedt announced that the emergency staff set up to assist O'Brien is being skeletonized and that only a few emergency employees will be retained to assist O'Brien in watching future developments in the electric power situation.

The power director took two steps in dropping controls.

He warned that many uncertainties remain because of prospective summer loads and other factors, and that these uncertainties may possibly lead to a reinstitution of the curtailment program either in whole or in part.

He said that the present modification and amendment contained in his order No. 4 "is predicated upon the continuation of the daylight saving time program and retention of other favorable factors."

Simultaneously, he urged each individual electric consumer to save electricity and obtain from it a maximum beneficial use.

In disbanding the more than 200 power conservation committees in 46 counties which had volunteered to assist in the power saving program, O'Brien praised them for their aid. He told them that risks are involved in lifting controls at this time and that factors exist which in the future may require a return to some type of curtailment. Those potential factors were listed in the director's letter as being the loss of prospective hydro-electric resources from a rapid run-off of the present snow pack; an extremely hot dry summer with unusually heavy demands for agricultural pumping; the loss of an important generating unit through breakage of vital parts; further delays in the completion of new generating plants due for operation late this fall or early winter.

Sanitation Plan Authority Speaks At Grange Session

Benefits to Campbell ranchers of the Hyde-Sullivan sanitation plan were stressed by Don Reinoehl, sanitation engineer, at a meeting of Orchard City Grange 333 Tuesday night in IOOF hall.

Costs of trunk sewers will be spread over the general tax base at less than the present rate, Mr. Reinoehl said. Local ranchers had feared that property fronting on trunk sewers would be specially assessed, the speaker said, but instead, he pointed out, each owner pays only his share of trunk-line costs throughout the district. Connection sewer costs and collection service charges remain the same as at present under the Hyde-Sullivan plan.

H. M. Shadle, grange master, presided. Mrs. Nellie Rutherford, lecturer, was in charge of the program.

Petitions for the Hyde-Sullivan plan in district 4 will be presented for approval of Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors at 11 a.m. Monday and grange members were urged to be present to help express the need of the plan.

May Dance Slated By Junior IOOF

Posters displayed around town this week advertise a dance to be held Saturday evening, May 8, by the Campbell Junior Odd Fellows.

This brings to mind the question "What or Who is this organization?" In a sentence it is a group of boys between the ages of 12 and 18 banded together to better themselves morally, mentaily and physically. They are sponsored by the Senior Brothers of Morning Light Lodge No. 42, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. This order has long been known for its benevolence and brotherhoood. That the association between the senior and junior orders will give the boys a better understanding of a better way of living is firmly believed.

The boys meet the first and third Saturday nights of every month for regular business meetings. Recreation consisting of pool playing, ping pong games, checkers and the like follow the close of the meeting. Baseball teams are being formed to take part in the hard ball league sponsored by the Campbell Co-ordinating Council.

Plans have been made to sponsor a dance annually both to aid the boys financially and to provide entertainment for the general public.

Survey Findings On Recreation To Be Discussed

Carson Conrad, consultant on community planning from the State Department of Health and Physical Education, will be in Campbell May 3, 4, and 5 to give his recommendations on a survey on recreation which was presented to him in March by the Campbell Coordinating Council.

Conrad visited Campbell last January at the request of Recreation Director Art Tindall and spoke to citizens interested in community recreation. He recommended at that time that a survey on recreation be made and submitted for his study.

Tuesday, Conrad will meet with the survey committee and on Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the grammar school auditorium he will speak at a public meeting discussing the findings of the survey and offering his recommendations for recreational improvement.

Dance Saturday Will Benefit Widows, Orphans

Dancing and a floor show Saturday evening in Civic Auditorium, San Jose, will benefit Santa Clara County Sheriff's Association widows and orphans fund.

Paul Putman's orchestra is engaged for dancing from 9 to 1, and a floor show from Hollywood will present a full hour's entertainment during intermission.

Fred Goudy, association president, described response to the ticket sale and plans for the affair as the biggest of the eight annual affairs. Among committeemen in charge of arrangements are William Salt, James Cunningham, Charles Hambough, Francis Gilleram and Floyd Stewart.

Poppy, Essay Awards To Be Given Tuesday

Winners of the Poppy Day poster contest and the Americanism essay contest held by the American Legion Auxiliary, will be presented with their awards during the 9 o'clock assembly at the Campbell Union High School Tuesday morning, May 4.

Presenting the awards will be Mrs. Rex Fuller and Mrs. Clara Fagalde on behalf of the Auxiliary. Winners of the Poppy Poster Contest are Bill Anderson, Jasper Ciraulo and May Gyotaku. Winners of the Essay Contest will be announced during the assembly.

The Poppy Sale will be held May 21 and 22.

C of C To Hold Dinner Meeting

A special dinner meeting of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce will be held Wednesday, May 5, at 6:30 p.m. in the Country Women's Club.

Findings of a committee headed by Chairman Ben Strong as to the advisability of changing the meeting time from noon to evening were adopted by vote of the Chamber at their last regular meeting.

The public is cordially invited to attend. Letters have been sent to all candidates for public office in the May 25 incorporation election urging them to attend the meeting.

A discussion of work done by various committees on incorporation will be the main topic of the evening.

Campbell Girl Named Delegate

Jeanette Gomes of Campbell is one of eight delegates from the San Jose area who will attend a national convention of Junior American Red Cross June 21-24 in San Francisco.

President of the chapter-wide high school council, Jeanette will also represent Campbell Union High School at the sessions, which will be held in connection with the national adult Red Cross convention.

Students from all parts of the United States, Canada, Guam, and four European countries will attend. Miss Bessie Lundy, Junior American Red Cross chairman for the San Jose chapter, announced names of delegates from the area.

Speaker Traces Scout Movement

The Monday noon meeting of the Campbell Rotary Club, attended by 35 members, guests and visiting Rotarians, listened to an inspiring talk by Chet Bartlett on the growth, aims and development of the Boy Scouts of America.

Mr. Bartlett, an executive of the Boy Scouts for many years, told how the movement was started in the United States. Originating in England, where it was headed by Sir Robert Baden-Powell, the scouting idea captured the imagination of an American businessman visiting in London in 1910. Groping his way through a thick London fog, the American lost his bearings. Stumbling into a scurrying British lad, the American asked for assistance in cross-

Campbell Court Notes

By Judge Blaine

(Editor's note: In keeping with our avowed policy of trying to be fair in our columns, we are publishing the following "Campbell Court Notes" written by Judge John D. Blaine.

Even though this writer is president of the Chamber of Commerce, and the Judge's comments are decidedly uncomplimentary to the Chamber, we feel that he has a perfect right to criticize if he sees fit. The right to freedom of speech and freedom of the press is an inalienable one with Americans).

Incorporation as an idea is on trial, and you would naturally expect a judge to look on all sides. One side in this argument is that everything has faults natural to its own virtues. And that is one reason why so many of our citizens are on the fence.

No matter what is our community project we shall have to put up with its natural faults. Community cooperation consists in accepting minor faults for the sake of the larger aim.

At the same time the faults should be admitted. It makes people on the fence annoyed to have incorporation boosted for as though you are a nut unless you are on the incorporation side. And citizens on the fence in this issue hold the balance of power.

A chief fault of small-town in-

Tells of National Guard Program

Describing activities of the National Guard, Capt. Paul E. Potts addressed a Campbell Union High School assembly recently.

Men from age 17 to 35 are eligible for National Guard training and to attend the summer camp July 18-31 at San Luis Obispo. They will receive regular army pay while in camp.

Older men as well as high school students are signing up during the current recruitment campaign, Captain Potts said.

Advantages of the program, he pointed out, include actual use of modern army equipment, training in communications, a sports program, and exemption from Universal Military Training should the UMT law be enacted by Congress.

In event of actual duty, National Guard members retain the rating they attain during their training period, he said.

Muggsy's Lost!

Has anyone seen Muggsy? He wandered away from 97 Alice avenue Tuesday morning and 11-year-old Nadine is waiting for his return. Muggsy, a three-year-old large black cocker with white breast and paws has been the constant companion of Nadine since he was a puppy.

Nadine's mother, Mrs. K. D. Babb, is offering a reward for Muggsy's return, so if anyone sees him, call Campbell 3333 and Nadine will go back to school with a happy heart.

Special Events Mark Observance of Methodist Church Anniversary

Important in local church history was the celebration April 18 of the 60th anniversary of the Methodist Church, in which affair the Congregational Church joined in fine spirit.

The sanctuary was decorated with huge bouquets of mixed spring flowers, arranged by Mrs. C. L. Ackerman and Mrs. Art Tindall. Mrs. John Brunswick, wife of a former pastor and now of Sacramento, gave an organ recital for the last part of the Sunday School hour, and continuing for the prelude to the worship service. Rev. L. J. Osborne sang "The Publican," by van de Water, while Gounod's "Sanctus" was sung by the combined choirs with Alma Taylor of San Jose as guest soloist.

Dr. Tully C. Knoles and Mrs. Knoles drove over from Stockton to take part in the service, he delivering the address of the morning. He took as his theme the changes in thinking that had come about since the local church was established 60 years ago, citing three books of the 19th century that had contributed to this change in thinking—the works of Karl Marx, which affected changes in economy and politics, of Darwin, which changed the idea of a finished creation to that of a continuing one, and Strauss, who in his "Life of Christ," brought about the beginning of higher criticism, and the resultant division of present day thinking into modernism and fundamentalism. He stressed the fact that the change politically had emphasized the latter half of Christ's commandment, that we love our neighbor as ourself, and that business codes are now common and accepted, where 60 years ago it was "Let the Buyer Beware."

After a period of visiting in the church, a bountiful dinner was served in the church parlors and in the community room. The tables were decorated in dainty spring flowers in uniform containers prepared by Mrs. Yvonne Binley. The hall had outstanding decorations of arrangements of tulips, the work of Mrs. Ray Fish of the What Not Shop, and a member of Women's Service Club.

At 3:30 the people again gathered in the sanctuary, where D. H. Cramer presided as chairman, Reginald G. Greenbrook presided at the organ, and gave three organ solos. Mrs. Paige Church, a former member of the choir, rendered two soprano solos, while Dr. Joyce W. Farr, nephew of a former pastor, sang two baritone solos. The following pastors were present and responded with short talks: Rev. Robert Carlson of the Congregational Church, Rev. W. H. Lloyd, Rev. J. M. Brunswick, Rev. J. F. Jenness, Rev. Edwin Bowling and Rev. J. F. Wilson.

A pleasant feature of the occasion was the presentation of a fine hymnal to Mrs. John D. Blaine, the only living charter member, by Mrs. Joseph Dahl for the Kilkare Klub, and to Mr. D. H. Cramer of a leather notebook from the Saturday Nighters by LBen Howard.

Mrs. E. R. Kennedy was general chairman for the event.

Among out of town guests noted were Mrs. Ira Bogert and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heinzen of Salinas; Miss Gertrude Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Anguin of San Mateo; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Harrington of Sunnyvale; Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Bartagnelli of Walnut Creek; Thomas Byrnes of Coalinga; Mr. and Mrs. Roseheim of San Bruno; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Simpson of Palo Alto. From San Jose came Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Palmer, Mrs. Allen Rudolph, Mrs. G. W. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wythe, Mrs. Mary Berry and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burke. The wives of all the ministers were present, and presented with corsages arranged by Mrs. Charles Short.

Poppy Day Described; Sale Commemorates War Dead

By MRS. CLARENCE FAGALDE
Poppy Chairman
Campbell American Legion Auxiliary

The custom of wearing the poppy as a memorial flower seemed to spring up naturally both in the United States and England after the close of World War I. Returning soldiers brought back memories of the little wild poppies growing along the edge of the trenches, beneath the tangled barbed wire, around the shell holes and over the fresh earth of the battle graves. They were the one touch of nature's beauty which survived in that area of destruction known as "the western front," and came to symbolize the heroism of those who died.

The association of the poppy with the war dead was given beautiful expression in the poem of Colonel John McCrae, Canadian physician who sacrified his own life shortly after he wrote:

"In Flanders fields the poppies blow,
Between the crosses, row on row—"

The poem touched hearts the world over and tied the poppy inseparably to thoughts of the war dead.

The first instance of wearing poppies in tribute to the dead took place in New York City on November 9, 1918, when Miss Moina Michael, of Athens, Georgia, a YMCA staff worker, distributed poppies at a conference of that organization.

The poppy was first distributed publicly on the streets of Milwaukee in June, 1919, in connection with the home-coming of the Thirty-Second Division and was first used to raise funds for aid of the disabled veterans in that same city the following May.

The American Legion adopted the poppy as its memorial flower at its national convention in Cleveland in 1920, and by the American Legion Auxiliary at its first national convention in Kansas City in 1921.

At first, silk poppies made in France by French widows and orphans were distributed by the Legion and Auxiliary on Poppy Day. Making of poppies by disabled American veterans was begun in hospitals in Minnesota in 1922, and the veteran-made crepe paper flowers gradually displaced the silk poppies. This year more than 25,000,000 poppies have been made by thousands of disabled men and women working in hospitals and convalescent workshops in 40 states.

The crepe poppy was adopted as the official American Legion Auxiliary flower because its making provided more interesting and beneficial work for the veterans with minimum cost for materials.

While the dead of World War II fell in many parts of the world, many of the fiercest battles of that war took place in France, Flanders and Western Germany, where the poppy is a native wild flower. Again it bloomed between the crosses which marked the resting places of American dead and it became the memorial flower for World War II as well as World War I. No matter where they died, the poppy is the flower which says we remember and honor their great sacrifice for America.

Thoughts of the dead naturally bring thoughts of the disabled veterans and children deprived of a father's support by the war. So, in exchange for the poppies each year Americans contribute approximately $2,000,000 for rehabilitation and child welfare funds of the American Legion and Auxiliary.

Campbell American Legion and its auxiliary will distribute poppies on the traditional day here this year.

Disabled veterans of both wars worked side by side in veterans' hospitals and convalescent workshops throughout the country during the winter and spring making the memorial poppies which the Campbell American Legion Auxiliary will distribute on Poppy Day, May 21, to be worn in honor of the war dead.

Hundreds Attend Cub Jamboree

A highly successful get-together of district Cub Scouts was held Friday evening in Campbell Grammar School auditorium, inaugurating the first of hoped for future such affairs. A total of 369 persons were in attendance.

Cub packs from Campbell, Cambrian, San Tomas and Union districts were present, with leaders and commissioners assisting. Cub Commissioner Ed Dalzell was chairman and led in Pledge of Allegiance to the country's flag. Rev. Robert Carlson of Congregational Church gave the invocation, after which Principal Lawrence Hill of the local high school gave a short talk on the meaning of Cubbing.

Earl Buck and his Pack Number 19 demonstrated some of their activities.

Den mothers and their committees were called to the stage and presented to the audience. Cub masters were introduced: Earl Buck of Pack 19, George Stubbe of Pack 9, Mr. Carhart of Pack 10; Pack 30 was represented by Mr. Mills in the absence of the regular leader, Mr. Price. Union District, while not as yet officially chartered, was present and Cub Master McCulloch was introduced as their leader.

As awards were presented to those earning honors, den mothers escorted their groups to the rostrum and assisted in the presentations. Pack 19 won the attendance award and was officially presented the banner for the year. More than 150 Cubs comprise these local groups at present.

After the ceremonies, motion pictures through the courtesy of the Associated Oil Company were shown and greatly enjoyed. San Tomas made its presence known by some well received orchestral selections. C. P. Klassen led in community singing and Rev. Lawrence Osborne of the Methodist Church gave the benediction.

Disabled veterans unable to do other work make all the memorial poppies which the American Legion Auxiliary distributes on Poppy Day to honor the dead and raise funds for the welfare of disabled veterans and veterans' children.

"AS I REMEMBER CAMPBELL"

Campbell's oldest resident to live here continuously, Charlotte W. Sutter has written the following narrative of early days here especially for The Campbell Press.

This first-hand account of one of California's early natives and settlers will be published in a series as space permits. It is part of our Campbell celebration of the gold centennial year.

By CHARLOTTE W. SUTTER

The oldest civic organization was the Board of Trade which later became the Improvement Club, and in 1924 the Chamber of Commerce. Then there were the Odd Fellows, the Rebeccas, the Masons, and the Grange. Also there were neighborhood clubs formed in the surrounding districts: The Moreland, the Union, the Punditas and the Rinconada Golf Club, all of which fostered friendships and offered social life for the community. The Country Women's Club in town raised funds for the beautiful library and community center building and still holds regular educational programs there.

The Sutter building went up in 1893, and in it the Morning Light Lodge No. 42 of Odd Fellows was instituted the following year, making them the first fraternal order in Campbell. The I.O.O.F. building was erected in 1902 providing a place to meet. The Sutter building was torn down in 1937 and a gas station placed on the corner. The Orchard City Grange was organized in 1903 and has been an important factor in the agricultural progress and civic life of the community.

As too men's clubs, there was a Countrymen's Club organized about 1908 by Elijah Janes, but it was discontinued. At present there is a very active Kiwanis Club. The voluntary Fire Department started with the organization of a bucket brigade in 1894. Later a Fire District was formed. The churches have played an important part in the history of the town. Two Protestant churches were organized in 1889, the Methodist and the Congregational. A Catholic church and still others came later.

Back in the 1900's we used to have literary societies at the school houses; then there were dances—gay parties—to which the old settlers used to come from distances up to 20 miles around. And that 20 miles by horse and buggy—not automobiles, and over dusty roads. Our Old Settlers' Day is an annual affair—the oldest annual celebration in the county. The old settlers enjoyed getting together and swapping stories about the covered wagon journeys and the days of '49. Soon it became an annual affair with elaborate preparations and speakers, sometimes local and some brought in from other places At first there were basket lunches. Some were held in the cannery, others in the hall or church. Since 1922 all meetings have been held in the school auditoriums. The dominating spirit of these get-togethers has always been a mixture of renewed friendship and patriotism.

Some of the prominent graduates of Campbell High School and other schools of the neighborhood are: Dr. Mark Hopkins, physician and surgeon of San Jose; Charles Beardsley, attorney, president of state and national bar associations; L. D. Bohnett, state assemblyman and San Jose attorney; E. S. Wakeman, jury trial lawyer of Los Angeles; Judge Davison, of the Santa Clara Superior bench; F. H Cutting, landscape artist; Harold Smith, missionary to China and instructor of Fisk University; Adelbert Campbell, Assistant Superintendant of Schools of Berkeley; the son of Mrs. H. P. Bean, executive, Washington, D. C.; electricians, Ed Genasci, Charles Cooper, Courtland Watson, Clifford Berry, Bruce Stone; Will Weitzenberg, district manager of American Telephone, New York; J. A. Cutting, assistant superintendent, state hospital, Agnew.

Campbell Woman Appointed to School Staff

Dr. Hubbard and Mr. Long, superintendent of schools at Gilroy, jointly announce the employment of Mrs. Bernice Lloyd Seveker, as general supervisor for the Gilroy City School System. Working under a special contract, Mrs. Seveker will spend four days each week in Gilroy and one day in the county office working with the other supervisors on curriculum, coordination and other problems of county-wide scope and interest.

Coming from the Campbell Elementary School District where she has taught for the past 25 years, Mrs. Seveker is well known in educational and Junior Red Cross circles throughout the county.

Originally, Mrs. Seveker was trained at San Jose State College where she received her A.B. degree. In recent years, however, she has attended summer school at Columbia University where she expects soon to be awarded her Masters Degree.

Experienced in all grades and well liked by students and teachers, Mrs. Seveker is expected to make a splendid addition to the county staff.

SUPERVISORS, PRINCIPALS TO HOLD CONFERENCE

Supervisors and elementary principals from the Bay Area will gather in San Jose on May 1, for a joint conference in Morris Dailey Auditorium, San Jose State College, with the morning session scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m.

Here's why we say WOMEN CAN GO PLACES IN THIS BUSINESS

1. This is a story of a typical Pacific Telephone "career girl." She started as an operator back in the thirties...a good job then, even better now. Today most new operators just out of high school average better than $35 a week when they start handling calls and many experienced operators earn $50 a week.

2. She was promoted to supervisor after a few years. Training new girls was an important part of the job...for Pacific Telephone was growing. She enjoyed vacations every year...with pay, of course. And she joined in many local telephone activities. Found telephone people friendly and sociable ...on or off the job.

3. She's a chief operator now supervising 70 women...her responsibilities and experience help determine her salary of $4,500 a year. Many "chiefs" earn more. Two-thirds of our people are women—hundreds have management jobs — five are assistant vice-presidents. Yes, women can go places in this business.

4. Telephone jobs must be good jobs to attract the capable people needed to furnish service. Good pay, steady work and an employee benefit plan give a strong sense of security. Comfortable surroundings, vacations and friendly fellow workers help make work pleasant.

Girl Scouts Hold All Day Outing

Girl Scout Troop 22 of Campbell held an outing at Alum Rock Park last Saturday, April 24. Meeting at the Scout Hall, the entire troop, along with the leaders, Mrs. Nadine Webb and Mrs. E. Arnold, then left in several station wagons for the park.

The weather was ideal and once assembled there, the girls had an opportunity to put their Scout teachings into practice. They cooked their own lunches over the "Buddy Stove Units," each had made previously for "Cook Outs" such as these.

The rest of the day was devoted to hiking, wading, games and just plain fun. Minor scratches sustained were remedied by first aid kit and knowledge. It was a tired but happy group that finally left for home.

Between rehearsals on their play, the Scouts will deliver cookie orders, work on leathercraft and enjoy folk dancing.

The troop regrets Mrs. Page's absence on the outing due to illness in the family. It wishes also to thank Mrs. Raab and Mrs. Arnold for their work during the cookie sale.

Schoolmen Will Meet Saturday

Bay area school supervisors and elementary school principals will meet Saturday, May 1, at San Jose State College for a joint session beginning at 9:30 a.m. Speaker at the morning meeting will be Dr. John T. Bartky, dean of the School of Education at Stanford University.

A business meeting of the California School Supervisors' Association, Bay Section, will be held from noon until 12:30 p.m.

Dr. Paul Hanna, professor of education at Stanford University will speak at a luncheon at 1 o'clock at the Hotel Sainte Claire. His subject will be, "The European Situation With Implications for Education."

About 250 supervisors and principals, representing one-third of the teachers in California, are expected to attend the one-day conference.

Campbell Court

corporation is cost of maintaining streets. Mountain View incorporated early, and don't some old timers remember early Mountain View! Suddenly as you hit this town your car began to pitch and roll like a small boat in a lake on a windy day. You were happy to get through Mt. View without a broken spring in low gear.

Anyhow bad streets cut down speed. And before we are able to repave incorporated Campbell a speed law here is apt to be a bad joke. Not to face this probability is to be decidedly unrealistic.

A chief virtue of incorporation is that we are running our own town. Incorporated, we are masters of our own fate. And we won't have to depend on our Chamber of Commerce. This public-spirited body is too much up and down. It needs projects, and it can't always have them—or it starts projects merely to keep itself interested. Our Chamber is usually either dying of old age or is a new-born baby wanting new toys. We owe it a lot, but we could use something more stable.

An alternative to incorporation is a police district. But on investigation we find that this form operates only under state and county laws. It would contribute little toward mastering our own fate. Yet its virtues should be fairly presented. And it could be vastly improved by legislative amendments.

More on incorporation in later court notes.

ing the street. The boy courteously took the arm of the older man and led him to his destination. Struck by the courtesy of the boy the American tried to tip him. The lad's reply was, "Oh no sir, I am a Boy Scout and it is our duty to help people whenever we can." The American, never having heard of the Boy Scout movement, asked where he might find the leader of the organization. He was directed to Baden-Powell, where he learned of the work of Scouting in England. Thus was started the Boy Scouts of America. A monument was later erected in London to the memory of the unknown English Scout who unwittingly helped to initiate the movement in the United States.

Mr. Bartlett, in his concluding remarks pointed out the parallel aims of Rotary and Scouting. each organization stressing service to fellow man and his community.
